England Waits For Word From Royal Bedside

LONDON, Nov. 26.—(U.P.)—The storm shaken British Isles waited in vain tonight for reassuring word from the room in Buckingham palace where King George V lies in bed, feverish and restless due to pleurisy which has developed since the monarch suffered a cold and a long lung nearly a week ago.

It was learned reliably that at 3:25 a. m. (Tuesday) that King George was passing a "very uncomfortable night."

An official bulletin issued by the king's physicians only added to the growing concern which had been held throughout the British empire for 24 hours. It said: "The king's temperature had risen to 101.4 degrees after an 'uncomfortable night.' The patient's strength was maintained, the doctor said."

The not encouraging bulletin said:

"His majesty, the king, has not had a comfortable day. His temperature now is 101.6 but the pleurisy is not extended further. His strength is maintained."

Signed, Stanley Hewett.

An announcement today said the king's fever was increasing and that pleurisy had developed, although unofficially it was maintained that King George had passed a "satisfactory" day.

Four Held In Probe Of Gambler's Death

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—(U.P.)—Four alleged gamblers and an alleged assassin were held tonight as the Rothstein case pushed forward to a trial.

The price of the gambler's death was paid before the grand jury in a room guarded by skirmish lines and reserves of uniformed police.

Four of the arrested men—cronies of Arnold Rothstein, the millionaire gambler who was fatally shot, three weeks ago in the ornate Park Central hotel, were held in $100,000 bail each as charged before the grand jury in a room guarded by skirmish lines and reserves of uniformed police.

Washington Park Tree Bid Awarded

Washington park on the west side will be beautified by the planting of trees and shrubs.

The contract for the trees was awarded to the Ransar Nursery company of Albany for $198.

The other bidders for the same trees were Berkeley Horticultural company $362.45; California Nursery company $397.35; Bay Nursery company $329.

Anonymous Letters Banned By Council

Anonymous letters will not be considered by the council, nor will a member of the council who receives them present them for consideration.

In action parties who think they have grievances against the city administration, and call upon the members on the telephone will not be listened to unless they give the names of those who are talking to them.

This was made evident at the meeting of the council last night, when Mayor Mattie Chandler stated she had been receiving anonymous communications, signed "A. Citizen," "Citizen," "For Good Government," "Pro Bono Publico" and many other similar names, and she thought that person who felt they had a real grievance, should be willing to put their names to their communications.

In addition to the anonymous letter the telephone is resorted to and different members of the council have been called upon by parties who refused to make known their identity, who abused the members in words that are not used in polite society.

The members of the council expressed themselves as always being willing to listen to any personal complaint, or to consider any communication that had attached to it, the writers name and address.

Cross-Country Hop Delayed By Winds

PEORIA, Ill. Nov. 26.—(U.P.)—Dick Jones, 17 year old aviator, who was prevented by high winds from winning his solo flight from San Francisco to New York today, will hop off for Chicago at 8 a. m. Tuesday, weather permitting.

James is making the trans-continent flight in competition for the $100 prize offered by the American Society for the Promotion of Aviation for the first pilot under 18 to make the trip.

The young flier, who arrived here Sunday from St. Louis, was entertained by the Peoria Aero club. He expects to arrive in Albany, N. Y. Friday where he will be met by an escort of five airplanes from New York.

Film Couple Wed In South

DOLORES COSTELLO and John Barrymore, often lovers on the screen, were married in the south Sunday, proving that all is not fiction that flits by on the celluloid.

Council Orders Fire Hydrants

At the meeting of the city council last night fire hydrants were ordered installed at Thirty-second and Clinton, Thirty-fourth and Clinton and Thirty-fifth and Cerritos.

Street lights were ordered installed at Fifteenth and Sunset and also at Twenty-third and Cutting. Twenty-third has been improved and the street open for traffic and the necessity for a light at that point is very important.

Twenty-one residents in the neighborhood petitioned the council for a street light at Barrett and Wilson avenue. Referred to the light committee.

Garage Request To Be Investigated

During the coming week the city building inspector and the building committee of the city council will investigate the petition of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Brown to erect a garage in front of their lot at 242 South Fifth street.

It is impossible to rent the house unless it has accommodations for an automobile, and as the lot is a narrow one, the garage would have to be built flush with the lot line; the petition sets forth.

$103,500 IN SECURITIES SOLD HERE

That the bond market is brisk is evidenced by the premium of $7,703 that the city council received last night on the sale of $103,500 of 5 percent 1927 harbor bonds.

There were nine bidders, but that of R. H. Moulton & company was the highest and the bonds were sold to this firm.

The other bids received were: Heller Bruce & Company, $6,126; Dean Witter company $7,309; National City company, $6,504.33; Anglo London and Paris company, $7,516; American National company $6,618; Detroit company $7,005; R. E. Campbell & company, $7,202; securities division of the National Bank of Italy $7,029.

The money derived from the sale of the bonds will be used by the city in making payments on the new unit that is now being constructed on the inner harbor.

Ezra Meeker, Trail Blazer Sinks Slowly

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 26.—(U.P.)—Sinking slowly, Ezra Meeker, famed trail blazer of the northwest was waging a losing battle against death here tonight.

The 97 year-old pioneer of ox team days, lapsed into unconsciousness this afternoon and a bulletin issued from his room at the Frye hotel said it was doubtful if he would survive the night.

The bulletin was issued by C. H. Templeton, grandson of the veteran.

A rugged constitution that stood him well for nearly a century has weakened considerably in the last two months.

Permit Granted By City Council For Alterations

Edward McDuff of the west side was last night granted a permit by the city council to make alterations in the front of a building on Washington avenue.

At present the windows in the second story of the building extend over the sidewalk, and it is McDuff's intention to do away with these bay windows, make the front flush, and cover it with stucco.

Building Inspector Hurley told the council he thought the work would lessen the fire hazard in that section.

Neighbor Row Ends In Court

A reported neighborhood quarrel last night led to the arrest of Jose Quirino of Essex avenue on a charge of battery by Police Sgt. Charles Mahuke. Quirino was arrested on a warrant sworn to by Concepcion Alverado, also of Essex avenue, a neighbor.

Quirino was released on $20 bail and will appear before Police Judge C. A. Odell this morning.

California Fliers Nearing Air Record

PRESNO, Nov. 26.—(U.P.)—The shadow of an airplane was constantly on the ground near here today and Lee Shoenhair and John Guglielmini, the pilots were well on their way in an attempt to break the world's endurance flight record. The two pilots have set daily speed marks while carrying the mail over this region.

The steady hum of the plane's motor made the residents of the city stare at the sky shortly after 9 o'clock when the monoplane had been in the air nearly 39 hours.

Driver Held Here On Liquor Charge

The Richmond traffic officers examine his lights they declared today and Lee Shoenhair and John Guglielmini, the pilots were well on their way in an attempt to break the world's endurance flight record. The two pilots have set daily speed marks while carrying the mail over this region.

Turkey For County Prisoners Thursday

MARTINEZ, Nov. 26.—Its real "prison turkey." The sheriff will turkey in the county jail for Thanksgiving Day.

For years it has been the custom of Sheriff R. R. Veale to provide a full meal to prisoners, murderers, thieves, or drunks. The daily menu of beans, stew and sugarless coffee has always been discarded for daintier things like pie, cake and luscious pork.

But pork is higher than turkey this year. So the prisoners are to have the real thing instead of day.

High Lights Reveal Car Load Of Liquor

MARTINEZ, Nov. 26.—George Evovith, 30, 815 Thirty-seventh street, Oakland, was fined $500 in the court of Justice of the Peace Frank Glass today on a charge of possession and transportation of liquor.

Evovith was arrested Saturday night by State Traffic Officer Lester Eaton, of Richmond, at Pinole. Eaton stopped Evovith and told him his lights were too high. The driver handed him a certificate showing that the lights had been adjusted three days before.

Believing that there must be a heavy weight in the rear seat to force the lights to shine higher than they should, Eaton opened the car door. He told Judge Glass today that 11 barrels, containing 110 gallons of whiskey were in the back seat.

"Those are good heavy springs," Evovith declared. "It looks like someone tipped off Eaton."

LOCAL CAGERS SPLIT WITH VISITORS

Richmond basketball fans were treated to two stiff, close games last night at the Roosevelt junior high school gymnasium. In the first game of the night the Santa Feon Pitt went down to the California Greys, 25 to 24, in a close contest. In the second game the Ben Malik squad of Richmond defeated the champion Chandler & Lyon squad from Oakland, 28 to 22.

In the last fifteen seconds of play in the Santa Fe-Greys game, minor was fouled by a local player. He missed his first free shot and sank the second for one point, giving his team victory.

Roberts was high man for the Greys with 10 points while McCarty and Fry with four points were second high.

For the Santa Fe outfit, Tula came through with 13 points and Nelson was second with 8 points.

Maliks Win
Rowdy Dyer started his eagle eye to work in the Ben-Malik game. During the course of the evening Rowdy collected 14 points and played a whale of a game. His comrades in cage games, Bunny Muth and Brian Barberie were trailing Dyer, Brian with six points and Bunny with five.

Bob Friend, former University of Nevada player, was star man for the Oakland outfit. Friend, who is a big six footer, player center and collected 11 points. Spectators are willing to take an oath that all Friend had to do was to get under the basket and stick the ball into the hoop without throwing it.

The Ben Malik on fit has yet to meet defeat. They showed championship qualities last night in spite of a late stop. In all probability it was the toughest game that the "Style-leaders" have faced this year.

"Twas a great, great game and one that will long be remembered here.

The lineups:
First Game
Greys: (25)—Roberts 10, McCarty 4, McCordle, Vendt 2, forwards Fry 4, Koutz center, Olsen 1, Muth 3, guards.

ELECTRICAL BONDS
The electrical bonds of William E. Wright and the 12 Corito Electrical shop were filed with the council last night and approved.

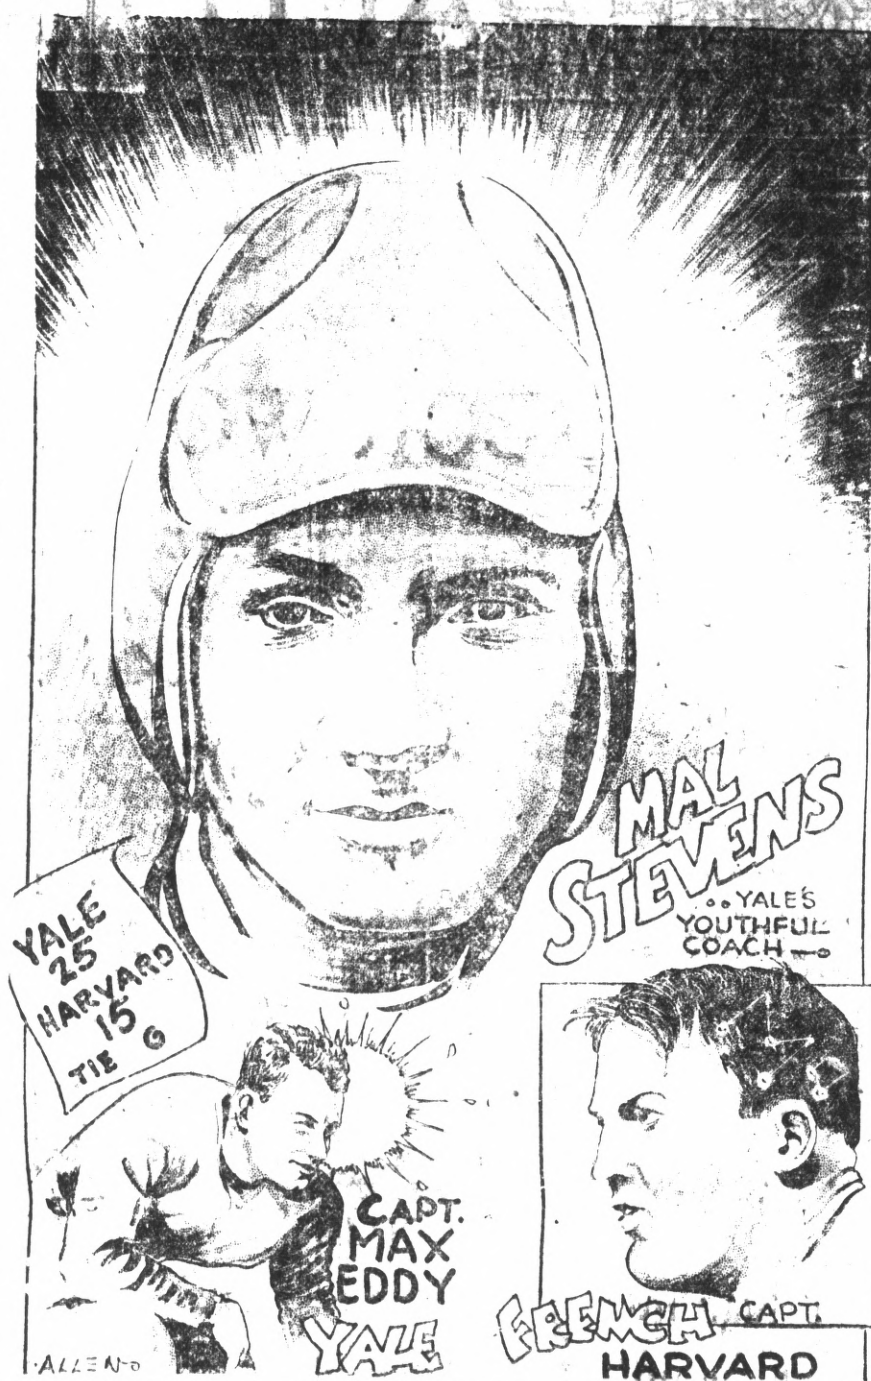

School nurse says all girls should know this

TALKING to a roomful of high school girls on personal hygiene, an experienced district nurse said: "One of the basic rules of health for girls is to keep the system functioning naturally at all times. Normal exercise and diet habits should be encouraged. But when necessary there's no harm in taking nujol, since it works mechanically and can't disturb the normal functions of any organ of the body. Particularly with girls, there are times when nujol should always be taken. Take a spoonful every night for a few days. It's a thoroughly safe and harmless method. It won't cause distress or gas pains or griping."

Nujol is different from any other substance. It contains no drugs or medicine. It can be taken safely no matter how you are feeling because it is so pure and harmless. And it's so easy to use. Every woman should keep a bottle on hand. Every drugist has this remarkable substance. Get the genuine.

HIGH CAGERS TO PLAY BEARS TODAY

The Richmond Union high school boys will spread their basketball wings against the strong University of California 130 pound team in the first game of the season at the Harmon gymnasium tonight.

The local boys are out for a victory. Last year the California squad took the strong Richmond outfit down the line 41 to 11 at Berkeley.

Who Coach Ivan Hill will use in his starting lineup has not been announced. Hill generally keeps a stiff upper lip before a game and remains dark and mysterious about his lineup.

Last year Hill's squad won a majority of the games. Prospects are good this year for a championship squad.

MITTENS FOR ROOTERS NEW GRID FAD

KENOSHA, Wis., Nov. 26. (U.P.)—The University of Wisconsin and probably other schools of the Big Ten will be able to give their football fans a "big hand" this season. The athletic department at Madison already has made provision to enlarge the hands in the cheering section there.

It has ordered 2,000 pairs of mittens, with white palms and cardinal backs, which it will sell to student rooters for a half dollar a pair. The mittens are large enough to be worn over regular gloves and will add appreciably to the noise and color present in the cheering stands. They are in two sizes, the smaller for the cords and the larger for the men.

The innovation had its inception in an acute case of green pepper indigestion. Henry Koper, Jr., 21-year-old Kenosha youth and a freshman at the University of Wisconsin last year, is the inventor of the gloves, and it was he who ate the peppers.

"My chum and I ate dinner down town here one evening about two months ago," Koper explained. "I had some green pepper salad and very soon after eating it started to feel sick. I went home and was unable to go to sleep. I thought of a thousand things as I lay awake and among them was the idea for the two-color cheering mittens."

Koper and his friend, Charles Unbehauen, have obtained patents on the device, have started a company and at present are engaged in a high pressure selling campaign at the various Big Ten universities. Already their venture has provided enough funds to take care of their entire university expenses with a comfortable margin.

The Richmond soccer team defeated the Scandinavians of Oakland 4 to 0 in a fast game at the Nicholl field Sunday. The win by the Richmond squad pulled the Scandinavians team out of the league lead.

Scores by Brain, Fewins and Jester scored for the local boys. Lineups were as follows:

Richmond: Scandinavians: Landahl, Thompson, cf, Olsen, Ohman, Preese, rf, Larsen, Baker, lf, Kooymann, Lems, cf, Transton, Long, lf, Overson, Grice, cf, Topper, Fewins, lf, Peterson, Brain, cf, Moss, Jester, lf, McRae, Hood, lf, Goldman, Referee—Haig.

BRONCS READY FOR LITTLE BIG GAME

The annual "little big game" between the University of Santa Clara and the St. Mary's squad will be played Thursday afternoon at Kezar stadium, San Francisco. One of the largest crowds to witness a football game in San Francisco is expected to attend.

Johnny Camarova, the Broncos' flashiest halfback of the early season may play against the Santa Clara N. Y. game, but he is not ready to take the field after a six-weeks' layoff.

The last preliminary practice to the big battle was held yesterday by the Broncos outfit while Coach Slip Madigan was putting his boys through a stiff workout.

The Cardinals defeated the Santa Clara outfit, but was forced to use forward passes to break the strong Bronco defense. The line that Coach Adam Walsh takes pride in, is something that the Saints will have to break.

Cal Pickford a Richmond lad has been playing little with the Saints. Cal suffered an injured shoulder early in the season. Coach Madigan has been using him with care although the season's shoulder is now said to be completely recovered. As a result he will go back into the line Thursday and should pile up some yardage. Cal has another year to play. If all goes well he may get

U. C. - GEORGIA MAY PLAY IN ROSE GAME

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 26. (U.P.)—The University of California accepted the invitation extended to represent the West in New Year's day football game at Pasadena. The school it will invite the eastern representative, probably Georgia Tech.

'Know Your Own Town,'
Club Topic

"Know your own town" was the topic of the Richmond club program yesterday afternoon. It was given under the direction of Mrs. Bernice McCormack, chairman of the civics department. Mrs. Nora Purviance, director of the Richmond Health Center was the principal speaker, giving interesting details about the activities of the local group. According to Mrs. Purviance, the health center was organized in 1921 for the purpose of giving medical and dental care to persons who could not afford to pay for professional services.

The first year, 144 visits were made and 10 calls on the outside while during the last year 800 visits were made to the health center and 200 calls made.

Mrs. Purviance told the clubwomen about the many cases that come within the jurisdiction of the health center, of the information that must first be secured before an applicant for medical or dental attention can be accepted and of the final disposal of the cases. During the first year of the health center, six clinics were held each week and now 17 are conducted.

Mrs. McCormack gave a short study of Richmond, showing the development during the last 25 years, when the population has increased from a few thousand to 31,179. Mrs. McCormack sketched the educational facilities in the city, which aid in California's high standing in the United States. Fifty-eight industries in Richmond according to Mrs. McCormack, employ 8,850 men. Standard Oil, the largest industry employs more than 3000 men and women with a payroll of six million dollars.

The local library, Mrs. McCormack informed the clubwomen, is one of the 16 largest libraries, with 317,000 volumes being circulated annually.

Richmond's harbor, the Ford plant, banks, playgrounds and public parks, and the municipal natatorium, which is the largest indoor swimming pool in the West, are all mentioned with interesting data by the speaker.

The musical program for the afternoon included vocal solos "Bon Jour, Ma Belle" by Behrend and "Brown Bird Singing" by Wood, sung by Mrs. F. C. Shallenberger, accompanied by Mrs. J. W. Bumgarner. Archie McVicker played the piano solo "H Trovatore" and a pleasing encore.

At the close of the afternoon refreshments were served by Mrs. Mollie Black, Mrs. Florence Marshall, Mrs. Hanna Miller, Mrs. Harry Marland, and Mrs. J. H. Rumrill.

The arts and crafts section will meet this morning at the De Shields' home to work on lamp shades. Any one interested is invited to attend.

AUTO RACER TAKES TO AIR

LONDON, Nov. 26.—(U.P.)—Capt. Malcolm Campbell, one of Britain's automobile speed kings, is Britain's best aviation fan. He has ordered a Gypsy Moth biplane, which he will fly to various parts of the world and attempt to discover natural speedways on land, that will permit speeds up to 250 miles an hour.

Captain Campbell has had extensive experience in flying. He is a pilot in the Royal Air Force during the war, but has not been flying recently, so will probably take a refresher course and take an "A" license, which civilians must possess before flying solo.

Martinez Man Returns To Cell

MARTINEZ, Nov. 23.—Conn O'Neil of Concord is back in jail again. He just couldn't stay away from the sheriff's comfortable cells.

O'Neil who was arrested on a charge of intoxication was released from the county jail yesterday morning. In the afternoon, he was rearrested in Concord by Constable Ott on another charge of drunkenness. He had company this time, however, because Constable Ott brought with him E. J. Casey, who is charged with a similar offense.

CONDITION OF KING GEORGE SERIOUS

shown in the large crowds which stood outside Buckingham palace throughout the day and the many distinguished callers who sought information of the king's condition.

Queen Mary, Princess Mary and the Duchess of York went for an automobile ride shortly before 3 p. m. and smiled cheerfully at the men who raised their hats and the women who bowed as they passed.

Sir Stanley Hewitt and Lord Dawson of Penn, returned to the palace at 11 p. m.; it was their third visit today.

Bulletins were placed on a railing in the forecourt at Buckingham palace this afternoon to keep the waiting crowd informed of the king's condition. It was the first time this had been done and officials explained that it was for the purpose of eliminating questioning of police and sentries by the crowd.

It was said unofficially that the king's condition was such that he had been expected by the physicians and that they did not consider it cause for alarm.

Many Worried
The thousands of persons who waited outside the palace, however, were distinctly worried. Many of them waited hours in the cold weather to learn of the latest bulletin and they watched with great interest the arrival of distinguished visitors and the colorful ceremony of changing the guard at the palace. The changing of the guard was marked by the resumption of brisk military music, which had been suspended on one day since the king's illness.

Among the many distinguished visitors were the Duke and Duchess of York, who motored to the palace from their residence in Piccadilly. They had lunch with the queen and princess Mary.

Chief Of Police Asks For Job As Night Watchman

MANILA, Nov. 26.—(U.P.)—Amusement officials are for employment of Chief of Police for the night watchman position.

There is, for example, the 29-year-old policeman with five years' experience as municipal chief of police and four years as clerk and municipal secretary, who "wants to be employed as watchman."

A Filipino musician who declares himself to be "healthy and robust" declares that he "plays contrabass at first sight with ten years' experience."

Also there is a bookkeeper "who finished the second year in the College of Liberal Arts with three years' experience as such" who "wants to be employed as watchman."

One young man "with three years' experience as clerk, salesman and tourist, desires to work in any of the three positions he has held."

Virtually all the applicants would class as accomplished linguists in any other place than the Philippines. Those asking only $20 a month salary usually speak at least three languages. One "clay typist" who desires only a "reasonable salary" cites among his qualifications the fact that he speaks English, Tagalog, Tagalog-Visayan and a little Spanish.

'Dry' Winetaster Found In Paris
PARIS, Nov. 26.—(U.P.)—King of French winetasters, 32-year-old M. Schultz of Alsace, might as well be a "dry" for he doesn't know what it means to drink a glass of the rare, bubbling beverages he samples.

In competition with 24 other first class professional wine-tasters Schultz carried off the honors as a wine-tasting contest in Paris, testing each glass and declaring where the wine came from, what vintage it was and what price it should fetch. He won a thousand francs and a silver medal.

"It wasn't very difficult," he declared afterwards. "There were only eight Burgundies and eight Burgundies are not difficult to tell apart."

Police Chief Held Up By Friendly Thugs
SIKESTON, Mo., Nov. 26.—UP—Gud Daniels, police officer and Will Masterson, night watchman believed that someone has been "kidnaping" them.

They were held up by masked men, robbed and forced to take a three-mile hike. Then their money and valuables were returned to them and they were ordered to get back on their beats.

Europe Storm Death Toll Growing
Algeria in the Mediterranean. A continual stream of death reports filtered in throughout the day from isolated towns and ships at sea.

More Feared Dead
Many more are feared dead in floods and shipwrecks and a long list of missing included 28 sailors known to have been on four ships unreported.

In addition to the many ships sinking or in distress, floods have caused great damage in Holland, Belgium and Germany, where river dykes were swept aside by rapidly rising flood waters. Antwerp's 800,000 population is in danger. The floods have cut off all drinking water from the city. The Scheldt river dykes have been broken and many houses wrecked by the incoming water.

Floods threaten to add to the death toll in Holland, where portions of Rotterdam and Dordrecht have been flooded by the breaking of dykes. Officials are of the opinion that the floods already have cost a large number of lives.

Ships In Distress
Amsterdam reported four ships in distress in addition to a number of large and small vessels which have been rescued by the active coast guard forces in spite of the innumerable seas. The Isle of New Marken is under water and the coast is strewn with wreckage of life boats and small fishing craft.

The Dykes also have been broken on the island of Sylt, one of the North Frisian islands, and rising rivers in Germany have caused a considerable amount of damage through the western areas.

Shops are closed at Ostend, Belgium and damage is reported throughout Belgium due to the rapidly rising waters of the Scheldt and Dyle rivers. Engineers have been sent to the scene of the worst damage with large detachments of workers in an attempt to halt further disaster.

Death Toll Grows
England, which felt the first fury of the storm, was only partly spared today as the death toll was increased steadily by new advices from various parts of the island. Floods in Wales and in Scotland have caused several deaths and great damage.

Everywhere the storm struck communications and transportation service were halted or greatly damaged.

The number of ships destroyed or crippled is problematical but undoubtedly great. Literally scores of distress calls have been sent out—many of them in such rapid succession that they could not be answered immediately. The men who live by the sea have worked tirelessly but against great handicaps as the storm continued to lash the open waters into high foaming waves.

EPIDEMICS HIT WEST, MANY ILL IN L. A.

October and the early part of November. Nearly 1000 persons there were ill of influenza during that period, but Dr. William C. Cresson, city health officer, said the situation had improved greatly because of heavy rains and widespread warnings.

The situation seemed to be serious in Los Angeles, where a number of deaths have occurred during the last week. A total of 1000 cases in one district were reported during the day, including the illness of Clara Dow, the motion picture star, and it was estimated that more than 1000 persons in Los Angeles were suffering from the epidemic.

Snake Star Dies
The death of E. J. Connelly, veteran stage and screen actor, last week at Hollywood, was caused by influenza.

The epidemic was described by health authorities as comparatively severe but it was expected the spread of the disease would be checked within a week.

At Twin Falls, Ida, public gatherings were prohibited as a means of curbing an epidemic of spinal meningitis which has caused six lives and afflicted seven other persons. Schools were dismissed for an indefinite period, churches and theaters were told to suspend meetings and performances.

A thousand cases of influenza were reported from cities of Utah and Idaho, and schools at Fairview, Utah, were closed because of an outbreak of scarlet fever.

Four deaths at El Paso, Tex., last week, were ascribed to influenza or kindred diseases and many children were kept from the schools.

College Reopened
Pomona College at Claremont, California reopened Monday after being closed nearly a week to prevent spread of influenza. Five grade schools at Montevia, Calif., were ordered closed after 18 percent of the students were reported suffering from influenza.

The Los Angeles city health department estimated last night that the influenza epidemic caused 14 deaths here during the past week.

Dr. George Parrish, city health officer, issued a bulletin warning that if all persons attacked with watery eyes or bad colds did not remain at home it would be necessary to resort to police arrests.

It was expected that the epidemic, described as "comparatively severe" would be curbed late this week.

Business Women To Meet Tonight
A social meeting and dinner will be held by the Richmond Business and Professional women tonight at the Hotel Carquinez. Dr. Irene Jenkins will be in charge of the program.

Dr. Margaret Keser will be the speaker of the night.

Friendship Club Whist Party Today
Richmond Friendship club of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs will sponsor a turkey whist party to night in Odd Fellows hall. Four dollar turkey orders will be awarded to every four tables. Playing will start at 8:30 o'clock with Lester Schow as chairman.

Don't Take Pills For Constipation
Ordinary pills taken to relieve constipation merely force a movement of the bowels without making the bowels themselves healthy. That's why the trouble returns in a day or two and you have to swallow more pills.

What every constipated person needs is a good liver tonic. Plantax is a thoroughly cleanser, a digestive system of all food secretions and at the same time restores the torpid liver to proper working order. When this is done you will no longer have frequent headaches, coal of tongue, salivary glands, sour stomach, gas, bilious attacks or other symptoms of constipation and liver trouble.

Plantax is made from the juices of harmless medicinal plants. A sure remedy—that acts in a mild, easy way without weakening or irritating the organs. Every 10 minutes, bottle $1 at any good drug store.

FOUR HELD IN DEATH OF GAMBLER

terial witnesses.

Friends Held
They were Jimmy Meehan, in whose apartment the famous high stake poker game was held in which Rothstein dropped $300,000 in I. O. U.'s, "Nigger Nate" Raymond, H. C. "Titanic" Thompson and "Red" Martin Bowie, gamblers who took part in the game, and Sidney Stajer, former secretary and confidante of Rothstein and a beneficiary by his will.

Bowie was the only one held in less than $100,000 bail. He appeared before the grand jury today and his bail was fixed at $10,000.

Fears that the other men might be tampered with or that their hostility to the investigation might cause them to flee the city led District Attorney Joab Banton to seek the extraordinary bail.

The police tension, instead of relaxing with the arrest of the witnesses, visibly increased. The gamblers, and Stajer, who is waiting trial on a narcotics charge, were hustled away to different strongholds. Judge Mancuso, in placing the five under bail, ruled that the police could hold them in custody in "any place not a state prison."

Woman Suspected
In asking Judge Mancuso to hold the witnesses in high bail, Assistant District Attorney Hastings submitted a paper labeled: "The people of the State of New York against Jane, John Doe and Richard Doe. In the matter of investigating the death of Arnold Rothstein."

No one in authority could comment on the inclusion of "Jane Doe" in the document.

The sudden incarceration of Meehan, Raymond, Thompson and Bowie was accepted in some quarters as the expected "break" in the Rothstein case. It apparently indicated that out of the maze of Rothstein's manifold connection with the high and low, the police, have emerged with their first theory. This is the simple tale that Rothstein, having weighed on his $300,000 in high stake I. O. U.'s, was executed by a high-strung "tough guy" called in to make him listen to reason.

District Attorney Banton revealed that he and five assistants worked in an uptown office from Saturday to Sunday afternoon—22 hours on a stretch—sifting all they have learned in the three weeks.

Gem Suspects

WILLIAM BALLYN, (left) steward of Berengaria, who has been with the Cunard line for 15 years is accused of smuggling in $100,000 of diamonds. He implicated Traffic Policeman John T. McIntyre (right) as the go-between.

since the gambler was shot.

Witnesses Kidnapped
After presenting his murder case before the grand jury, Banton said he would next proceed against those who have "spirited away" his witnesses and hampered his investigation.

Third, he said, he would take action against "those who have tampered with Rothstein's files in destroying, concealing or withholding important evidence in the files."

Finally, he plans "to proceed against those in the recent strikes."

The dynamite in the latter threat was revealed by the District Attorney's next words.

Cops Sprayed Barged
"I mean the fur and garment strikes," said Banton. "Rothstein played both ends against the middle. This is a conspiracy against trade and commerce, and every fact relating to the Rothstein investigation will be submitted to the grand jury."

Manton charged that witnesses and potential witnesses had been threatened with death if they aided the police. This is the reason, Banton explained, that the criminal courts building and corridors leading to the grand jury room have been turned into an armed camp, with more than 20 uniformed police and plain clothes men guarding elevators, stairways and corridors.

EL CERRITO TO GET BIDS ON BARRETT

Bids for the improvement of Barrett avenue will be received on Dec. 10, according to the action of council of El Cerrito at their meeting Monday when they passed a resolution inviting proposals for the said work.

According to the plans and specifications, Barrett avenue will be repaved from the westerly city limits to easterly line of Yuba avenue. The street will have a six inch base with three inch surface of asphalt macadam and will be paid for out of the street improvement fund.

On the recommendation of Commissioner Charles A. Zimmerman, the council instructed street superintendent R. R. Cheek to have traffic arms to be operated by school children constructed at Fairmont and Stockton avenues on San Pablo avenue.

A letter signed by Mrs. R. W. Moore, secretary of the Harding P. T. A. that that body had approved the proposed plan.

Report of Fire Chief Arthur Byrd to have the council deny a permit to Mrs. Bu terfield to have an open flame on a sign in front of her business establishment at San Pablo avenue and Cutting boulevard on account of being a fire hazard was laid over for one week so Byrd could get reports from the insurance companies and from other cities in the East bay.

A communication from the Pacific Gas & Electric Co. notified the council that under the new rates on street lights the city would save $164.16 per year.

A permit was granted the Italian Catholic Federation to hold a Thanksgiving dance in Cerrito hall on Wednesday, Nov. 28.

Request of street superintendent R. R. Cheek to construct new culverts at San Carlos and Lynn streets and San Carlos and Curry streets was granted by the council.

No action will be taken by the council of El Cerrito on the construction of a culvert over Cerrito creek at Center street until work has been received from the council at Albany as to whether they will bear part of the cost of the work. Street Commissioner Peter Larsen stated that he had taken the matter up with Albany officials and it would be brought before their next meeting.

The council ordered that rock be placed in front of the property of Mrs. Smith, who is building a new home at Donal and Potrero avenue.

The second reading and final passage of the ordinance creating a planning commission was laid over for one week on account of the absence of City Attorney J. H. Peters who was to inform the council the approximate cost of putting the zoning and planning commission into effect.

Request of Police Commissioner J. R. Beck to have the third traffic officer, who was laid off some time ago on account of the depleted condition of the city treasury, put back to work was laid over for one week, so a report on the financial condition could be presented to the council.

CHINA MAY BE SWEEP BY FAMINE

PEKING, Nov. 26.—UP—China is certain to suffer from one of the most severe famines in history at the end of this winter and early next spring.

Reliable reports made by consular officials, missionaries and investigators for the China Famine Relief commission, show a probable death toll variously estimated at from 50,000 to 250,000. There have been serious crop failures and floods in some districts, but the chief cause of famine will be the depredations of bandits and soldiers, who have taken the surplus grain of the farmer and left them nothing even for seed.

Reports show that bandits are numerous in at least seven of China's eighteen provinces and that hundreds of villages and small towns have been completely sacked in recent months. Outlying farmhouses have not been neglected by the robbers.

The Nationalist Government is doing something toward relief and foreign organizations are active but it is apparent that despite everything which will be done, thousands are doomed to die.

Young Hunter Taken From Bay By Three Boys

You've read time and time before of the duck hunter who stands up in his boat, rocks it, and then falls into the cold cold waters of the bay.

Well, it happened again Sunday. John Klobus, 15, 557 Humboldt street, Richmond, was hunting ducks off south Eighth street in the Richmond inner harbor Sunday. He rocked his boat and fell into the bay.

Three Berkeley boys, Joseph Wooten of Channing Way, Arthur Montgomery and Robert Morse, 1912 Rose avenue, rowed to his assistance.

Arthur Cox, watchman at the city wharf nearby, rowed to the capsized boat and recovered Klobus' gun and towed the boat ashore.

LOCAL ACTRESS CLEARED IN SLAYING

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 26. — Carrie Ellsworth, Richmond actress, 74 Terrace avenue, has convinced San Francisco police that she knows nothing about the slaying of Gerry Ferri, underworld character. The police have given the girl a "clean slate" following an investigation. The Richmond actress also known as Elaine Worth and Naana Wortova, has been playing the title role in "Easy For Zee Zee" at the Green street theater and following the investigation yesterday returned to her role in the theater last night.

Admittedly the sweetheart of the slain gangster, Miss Ellsworth told authorities that she had broken with Ferri about two weeks ago following a lover's quarrel and had seen nothing of him since.

Blood stains found on the furniture in Ferri's apartment, 490 Lombard street, furnished police with the only new clues in the shooting of the well-known gangster.

FLIERS SAVED FROM STRAITS BY FERRY

VALLEJO, Nov. 26.—A ferry boat last night "dashed" to the rescue of two aviators floating in the waters of the Carquinez Straits. R. P. Jones, 39 and John Shinn, 18, were taking a ride in Jones' plane when the craft plunged into the bay.

Passengers of the Southern Pacific ferry, Garden City, saw the plight of the airmen as the plane nosed downward. Realizing that he could not land in the hills, Jones guided the machine down into the water. The two were clinging to the sides of the floating plane when the Garden City crew sent a life boat to their assistance.

Shinn escaped without injury, while Jones was bruised and shaken up. The plane was later towed to Mare Island.

It is reported that Jones is an unlicensed pilot and that his machine was of an obsolete type.

WHERE IMMIGRANTS ARE WANTED

Canada is seeking immigrants to settle on her unproductive land. She has millions of acres of fertile prairie, now open and wild. It is home makers she is looking for, real pioneers who are ready to suffer some inconveniences and privations in order to win homes for themselves. This means years of hard work, hardships incidental to opening a new country and people possessed of courage, industry and determination.

Immigrants of this type are hard to get. The present generation does not produce many of them. Canada wants no other kind so the number of homesteaders she is welcoming are few. During the last fiscal year Canada admitted 151,597 immigrants of the kind she wants. During the same period there were 73,154 Canadians who changed their homeland and crossed the line into the United States. Canada spent large sums getting these 150,000 immigrants only to lose half the number. This is not making rapid progress towards settling the wild, free lands. It seems that prospects for hard-working people are better in the States than they are across the line.

Maine has some valuable agricultural land waiting development but doubtless she would find it equally difficult to gain immigrants to take it up. There is room in this state, however, for agriculturists of the right type. They ought to have some capital to start right and be possessed of a disposition to work. For such the opportunities in Maine are many. Perhaps those who are prepared to work hard would get along well anywhere. In this respect we imagine Maine has just as much to offer new settlers as Canada has, and many things which our neighbor to the north cannot duplicate.

THE MODERN GIRL

We knock and criticize her, we scold, anastrophize her, we wish that she was wiser, more dainty and refined; her path we're always stalking to criticize her talking, her way of thinking, her manners and her mind.

We say, "Oh high-tighty! She is frivolous and flighty and all her ways are mighty undignified to see; she joyrides, flirts and chatters, our old-time rules she shatters and laughs at serious matters with unabated glee!"

We chide and we correct her, we shadow and detect her, we study and dissect her with all her smiles and tears, and find on looking o'er her (and learning to adore her) she's just like girls before her for several thousand years.—P. J. in Boston Transcript.

"Hoover," observes the Cocohino Sun, "joined the Forty and Eight outfit. Forty states for him and only eight for Smith."

The farmer with a good herd of beef cattle and a plentiful supply of corn for fattening purposes is going to get quite a bit of relief within the next year.—Madison City Globe-Gazette.

One way to start the day right is to have a wife who knows the proper combination of flapjacks and maple syrup.

With a lot of college professors and Senator Blaine coming out for him; is it hard to understand how Al Smith lost the election?

One homelike touch, says a returned motor camper, was that the family could use the rumble seat for a breakfast nook.—Detroit News.

These anti-fat remedies would be all right if they really could take the fat out of the brain.

Nicaragua has had her elections, but there is not any evidence yet that Sandino is satisfied with it.

Dear Jiddle,
I want to make my little girl, age ten, some pajamas. She rebels against wearing them because she does not want to dress like a boy. Pajamas are so much warmer for winter that I insist on her wearing them and want some suggestions if possible from you as to material, color and trimming.

For some, if not all, of her sets and there are daintily figured chailles and even Terry cloth for very cold nights. She should see the flamboyant pajamas French kiddies wear! Modernistic patterns

BEAUTY

Dear Miss Lancy,
I am the not too proud owner of two deep, perpendicular lines between my eyebrows that give me an unwavering expression of deep thought and concentration. No matter how much I consciously try to relax the muscles of my forehead they seem to contract constantly and make these furrows just there something I can do to eradicate them so that I won't always look as if I were frowning?

MARTHA.
Smoothing such lines away by gentle patting with a good skin food, followed by an astringent to tighten up the skin may do away with your frown to some extent, but I'd be willing to bet that your eyes need attention. You wouldn't draw your brows together constantly, in my estimation unless you were straining your eyes to see. Are you near-sighted? Your best bet is to go to an eye specialist and, if necessary, be fitted out with glasses for reading and the like.

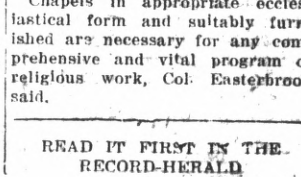

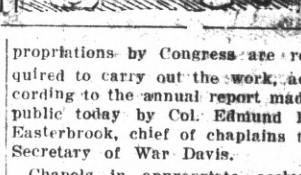

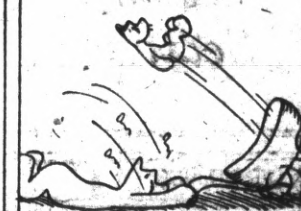

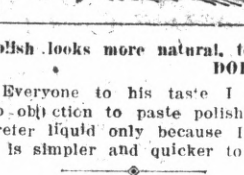

Dear Miss Lancy,
I don't see why you recommend liquid polish. It makes my nails brittle and so that they break easily. And I think paste and such colors and combinations of color. The model sketched could of course have sleeves in which case seal them to match the pajama legs.

Yours for style,

polish looks more natural, too.

Everyone to his taste I have no objection to paste polish and prefer liquid only because I feel it is simpler and quicker to use.

AFGHANS WAR ON MODERN IDEAS

LONDON, Nov. 26.—The Westernization of Afghanistan, contemplated by King Amanullah in a series of progressive reforms, has reached the saturation point much sooner than provided for in the royal program. Reports from Simla state that the King has decided not to issue the decree that women should discontinue the wearing of the purdah veil. Opposition of the Mullahs, a powerful body of Islamic priests, was too strong.

Rock coats, boots, trousers and felt hats were practically enough for one generation of wild mountaineers. Some even consented to the shaving off of their beards, in spite of the injunction of the Prophet. Seven hundred tribal headmen assembled in the capital in August listened to their king prescribe the wonders of western civilization. They shook, instead of kissing, the royal hand; they sat on seats in the royal garden, instead of on the more comfortable ground; they tolerated the exhibition of pictures, in direct defiance of the Islamic law.

The tribesmen had heard, vaguely, of how Queen Soraya had discarded the purdah during her European visit. They knew that the Queen and other ladies of her household had appeared unveiled at a banquet and reception in Kabul. They had heard, and listened well, but they listened more attentively to the words of the Mullahs.

King Amanullah listened, too. Deputations of up-country Mullahs warned him that the court should not set an example of laxity. The king, an ardent and conscientious reformer, pointed out that Afghan peasant women often discarded the purdah while working in the fields. This was done for convenience, without prejudice to the institution of the purdah. The Mullahs declared. After addressing the king they returned to their people. Dissatisfaction spread quickly. Amanullah decided to proceed more slowly with his modernization campaign.

Hostility to the king's intended move was chiefly confined to the outlying districts, where it was interpreted as an attempt to deprive Muslims of their rights. It is true that the purdah is not even theoretically demanded by Islam, but custom and long practice have established the veil as a necessity.

One of Amanullah's first moves in Westernization had to be to rescind immediately the prohibition of marriage before the ages of 18 for women, and 22 for men. Mountaineers who consented grudgingly to the top-hat and the razor would have none of this tampering with matrimonial custom. They cared very little more for the insistence on monogamy for all public officials.

The more advanced Afghans are in sympathy with the king's plans, and even the other elements have obeyed most of his decrees. But the power of the Mullahs can not be disregarded. In the meantime, the purdah remains a national institution.

Use Our Budget Plan of Divided Payments

From Five Hundred to Five Thousand Dollars!

Such is only part of the story of increased values that is being written in the development now taking place on the Richmond waterfront

There is nothing physically spectacular about the dredging and filling operation which you see in progress along the Richmond water front.

And yet literally and figuratively these operations are maturing a crop of dollars for Richmond property owners, Richmond business men and Richmond residents.

Industrial property that is today worth from $500 to $600 per acre will tomorrow, upon the completion of the harbor improvements, leap in value to $5000 and $6000 per acre.

Richmond's harbor is one of Richmond's greatest assets—remember this—the busy dredgers are literally coining the new prosperity that the citizens of Richmond are to enjoy, in the immediate future.
